Course Description: This course reviews major theoretical approaches to intercultural communication and discusses its role in the mediation of political and ethical tensions that are inherent to multicultural environments.

Textbook:
Mountain View, CA: Mayfield Publishing Co.

Objectives of the Course: Throughout this course, you will...
* review the major theories, concepts, and models of intercultural communication, * learn and develop vocabulary necessary to discuss theories related to intercultural communication, * be exposed to ethical and political issues linked to intercultural communication through a variety of viewpoints and testimonial cases.

The Student's Responsibilities in this course are:

1. To attend regularly and to develop critical and active listening skills when not speaking.

2. To prepare assignments, to complete readings and to speak when scheduled.

3. To participate in class discussions, to offer constructive criticism of your classmates as speakers; to complete all written assignments.

4. To confer with your instructor about your progress and problems, if any, in this course.

5. To prepare supplementary assignments and reports as required.

6. All written assignments are to be computer-generated unless specifically exempted by the instructor.
Grading:
Your final grade will be composed of:
1. Two written examinations (100 pts. each = 200 pts.)
2. Attendance and QUZZES (50 pts. + 50 pts.= 100 )
3. A written final project (Due May 13, 100 pts.)

Grading Scale:
400-354 pts. A
353-318 pts. B
317-280 pts. C
279-240 pts. D
Below 239 pts. F

STUDENTS WITH SPECIAL NEEDS WILL BE GRADED ACCORDINGLY

Class Attendance and participation (50 pts):

1. As this is a course in which theoretical knowledge and abilities are being developed, attendance to class is mandatory. Violation of this policy will seriously affect the student’s academic standing in the course.
2. The student must speak on the day he/she is scheduled to speak OR make prior arrangements with the instructor OR receive the letter grade of F unless the absence is officially excused. Whenever possible, notify your instructor of any absences in advance. Phoned messages for your instructor may be left at the instructor’s voice or email.

Students Rights & Responsibilities

A. Special Accommodations (Law 51): For students who are registered with the Rehabilitation Services Administration or students who are in need of special accommodations, please let me know on the first day of class. Possible arrangements dealing with assistive technology or equipment you may need should be coordinated through the Disability Services Office (OAPI) of the UPR-RRP, Dean of Students Affairs.

B. Grievances
Students with a grievance against another student in this class or students with a conflict with the instructor are referred to the grievance procedures outlined in the Student Handbook. It says, in part, “in academic matters such as a grade complaint, the student should first speak with his or her professor. The normal hierarchy then leads to the department chairperson, dean of the college, and provost”.

C. Cheating & Plagiarism
Students are reminded that cheating and plagiarism will not be tolerated. Even one incident of cheating or plagiarism is grounds for failing the course or more serious action by the university. Please study carefully the University policies on cheating and plagiarism that are detailed in the Student Handbook.
Below, you will find the class schedule and assignment due dates. This is SUPERimportant. Do NOT lose this syllabus!
